V/s.

M/s. Marmagoa Motor Transport
Co-operative Society Ltd., ... Second Party
Neugi Manson, Vasco-da-Gama.

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu referred the industrial dispute arising out of the termination of the 1st Party workman's service by the 2nd party for adjudication by this Tribunal with the following schedule.

SCHEDULE

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Marmagoa Motor Transport Co-operative Society Ltd., Vasco-da-Gama, in terminating the services of Shri Monu Mahadev Shirodkar, conductor, with effect from 25-8-1976, legal and justified; If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?"

The reference was registered and notice was sent to 1st Party for filing his claim statement. The 1st Party appeared and was given further time to file claim statement. At the adjourned date he was not present and no claim statement was filed. A notice was sent to him giving him a final chance for filing the claim statement on 23-11-78. The notice was served, but the 1st Party did not appear and no claim statement was filed. The matter was posted for order being passed and it was kept back till to-day anticipating a possible exhibition of interest in this dispute on the part of the 1st Party by turning up later on to inquire about it though he had failed to turn up on the given date. It is now one month since the date that had been given intimation of to the 1st Party. He has not turned up.

In the circumstances stated above, this Tribunal is constrained to pass an award that there is no material before it for considering the termination of the service of the 1st Party by the 2nd party to be not legal and justified. Award passed accordingly.

Shri Jose Caetan Menezes, Menezes Vaddo,
Bastora, Bardez — Goa. ... Complainant

V/s.

M/s. Vaman Govind Shinde, Khorlim, Mapusa, Bardez — Goa. ... Opposite Party

The complainant alleged that the opponent employer had removed him from service during the pendency of an industrial dispute before this Tribunal without permission or approval and hence had acted illegally and without justification.

The opponent employer contended among other things that the complainant was not a concerned workman in the pending dispute.

The complainant examined himself and one co-worker. When the case came up for opponent's evidence, the complainant declared that he was not interested in going back into opponent's service. The Tribunal then suggested to the two parties to talk over the matter and see if compensation and its quantum could be agreed on. The parties took their own time and finally in the presence of the Tribunal thrashed out their differences and agreed on a payment of Rs. 775/- payable in instalments of Rs. 400/- and Rs. 375/- on 18-10-1978 and 15-11-1978, by the opponent to the complainant. Cheques were also issued accordingly.

In the above circumstances, the matter has been settled by the complainant's acceptance of compensation. The complainant does not want reinstatement. Hence under section 33-A of the Industrial Dispute Act, the following Award is passed.

AWARD

The matter having been settled by payment of compensation to the complainant by the opponent, the complaint is dismissed as not pressed.
